gangs The most knowledgeable and up to date report on gangs in America The Insane Chicago Way John

Hagedorn,2015-08-19 Police the press and the public all see the kind of violence that besets the inner city today as irrational and basically about turf revenge or drugs Renowned criminologist and expert on gangs John Hagedorn here tells a very different and little known story centered on the dramatic rise and fall of a Mafia like Latino organization in Chicago called Spanish Growth Development Hagedorn s main informant is Sal Martino an Italian Mafioso who became intimately involved with the In ane Family one of the factions of Spanish Growth Development Through Sal s first hand account Hagedorn shows that the violence was not a result of disorganized crime but rather the outcome of SGD s prolonged demise He gives us for the first time a detailed the history of SGD the reasons for its creation the uneasy alliances between gang families the organization s reliance on bottom up police corruption and its ultimate collapse in a pool of blood at a 1999 peace conference Revealing the hidden and riveting stories of Chicago gangs efforts to build structures ostensibly to reduce violence and to organize crime of the integration of gang and mafia history and of the central role of police corruption in Chicago s gangland The In ane Chicago Way makes a powerful argument for the need to regard corruption as the bedrock of gang power It dispels the notion that gang violence can be explained solely by ecological neighborhood based processes and sheds light on the current gang situation in Chicago by laying bare its history while raising disturbing questions for researchers policy makers and the public

Gang Suppression and Intervention Irving A. Spergel,1996-07 The first comprehensive national survey of organized agency and community group responses to gang problems in the U S The only national assessment of efforts to combat gangs Presents a comprehensive gang prevention and intervention model based on this national assessment These models are recommended as effective policies practices and strategies for communities to combat gangs Covers gangs as organizations membership demographics and experiences the social contexts of gang development social opportunities schools and jobs and more

Gangs and the Military Carter F. Smith, 2019-09-20 Over the past several decades there has been a continuous and growing focus on street gangs outlaw motorcycle gangs and domestic extremist groups Many of these groups have members with military training and some actively recruit from current and former military veterans and retirees That military experience adds to the dangerousness of veteran gang members as well as those groups they associate with Communities everywhere are experiencing the damaging impact of gang criminal behavior By observing gang activity from the Revolutionary War to today Smith examines the presence of military trained often veteran gang members in the communities He looks at the turning points in gang investigations in the military and also looks at the laws and policies designed to specifically counter the criminal activity the threats of gang activity pose on a community Grounded in current knowledge and research Gangs and the Military successfully addresses the growing presence of criminal gang members in the United States As well as reflects on how the authorities that counter and combat them are doing so on a national and global level

Film Language Christian Metz, 1991 A pioneer in the field Christian Metz applies insights of structural linguistics to the language of film The semiology of film can be held to date from the publication in 1964 of the famous essay by Christian Metz Le cin ma langue ou langage Geoffrey Nowell Smith Times Literary Supplement Modern film theory begins with Metz Constance Penley coeditor of Camera Obscura Any consideration of semiology in relation to the particular field signifying practice of film passes inevitably through a reference to the work of Christian Metz The first book to be written in this field Film Language is important not merely because of this primacy but also because of the issues it raises issues that have become crucial to the contemporary argument

Building the Black Metropolis Robert E. Weems Jr., 2017-08-10 From Jean Baptiste Point DuSable to Oprah Winfrey black entrepreneurship has helped define Chicago Robert E Weems Jr and Jason P Chambers curate a collection of essays that place the city as the center of the black business world in the United States Ranging from titans like Anthony Overton and Jesse Binga to McDonald s operators to black organized crime the scholars shed light on the long overlooked history of African American work and entrepreneurship since the Great Migration Together they examine how factors like the influx of southern migrants and the city s unique segregation patterns made Chicago a prolific incubator of productive business development and made building a black metropolis as much a necessity as an opportunity Contributors Jason P Chambers Marcia Chatelain Will Cooley Robert Howard Christopher Robert Reed Myiti Sengstacke Rice Clovis E Semmes Juliet E K Walker and Robert E Weems Jr circumstances or champions of social change Or were they all of these their role perceived differently by different races and socioeconomic groups United States of America V. Edwards ,2000 Gray V. Murphy ,1989 A World of Gangs John Hagedorn,2008 On the street with gangs in three world cities Chicago Rio de Janeiro and Capetown Hagedorn discovers that many of them have institutionalized as a strategy to confront a hopeless cycle of poverty racism and oppression The nihilistic appeal of gangsta rap and its ethic of survival by any means necessary he argues provides vital insights into the ideology and persistence of gangs around the world Proposing how gangs can be encouraged to overcome their violent tendencies Hagedorn appeals to community leaders to use the urgency outrage and resistance common to both gang life and hip hop to bring gangs into broader movements for social justice BOOK JACKET The Great Commission to Worship David Wheeler,Vernon M. Whaley,2011-09-15 A closer Scripture based look at the intertwining relationship between worship and evangelism as the foundation for the fulfillment of the Great Commission The Blueprint Rod Emery,1996-07-01

From Jim Crow to Jay-Z Miles White,2011-11-14 This multilayered study of the representation of black masculinity in musical and cultural performance takes aim at the reduction of African American male culture to stereotypes of deviance misogyny and excess Broadening the significance of hip hop culture by linking it to other expressive forms within popular culture Miles White examines how these representations have both encouraged the demonization of young black males in the United States and abroad and contributed to the construction of their identities From Jim Crow to Jay Z traces black male representations to chattel slavery and American minstrelsy as early examples of fetishization and commodification of black male subjectivity Continuing with diverse discussions including black action films heavyweight prizefighting Elvis Presley s performance of blackness and white rappers such as Vanilla Ice and Eminem White establishes a sophisticated framework for interpreting and critiquing black masculinity in hip hop music and culture Arguing that black music has undeniably shaped American popular culture and that hip hop tropes have exerted a defining influence on young male aspirations and behavior White draws a critical link between the body musical sound and the construction of identity Views from the Streets Roberto Aspholm,2019-11-26 Views from the Streets explains the dramatic transformation of black street gangs on Chicago s South Side during the early twenty first century Drawing on years of community work and in depth interviews with gang members Roberto R Aspholm sheds new light on why gang violence persists and what might be done to address it

Manifestations of Masculine Magnificence Teresa N. Washington,2014-02-25 Manifestations of Masculine Magnificence Divinity in Africana Life Lyrics and Literature is a remarkable study and the first of its kind Teresa N Washington eschews popular culture s pimp myths and thug sagas and traces the Africana man s power creativity and consciousness to his inherent divinity Manifestations of Masculine Magnificence takes the reader to the source of power with an analysis of African Divinities and divine technologies Washington explores the permanence and proliferation of African Gods from oppressive plantations to the empowering proclamations of such leaders as W D Fard Marcus Garvey Father Divine and Allah the Father Washington analyzes the summonses to and from the Gods that resonate in the music of such artists as Erykah Badu The RZA Sun Ra X Clan and Rakim Using literary analysis as a prism to display the diversity of Africana divinity Washington reveals the literature of such writers as August Wilson Walter Mosley Toni Morrison Ngugi wa Thiong'o and Ishmael Reed to be three way mirrors that eternally reflect and project the Gods their myriad powers and their weighty responsibilities Manifestations of Masculine Magnificence will prove indispensable to independent scholars as well as scholars of Comparative Literature Hip Hop Studies Gender Studies Africana Studies Literary Criticism and Religious Studies
